	Fit in den Fremdsprachen am GymMar: LS 2: Wörterbücher bei Lernkontrollen	Jahrgang 9: 1. Fremdsprache Lernstrategien
---	--	---

1. Vorteile und Nachteile eines Wörterbuchs bei Lernkontrollen:

Das Nachschlagen im Wörterbuch bei Lernkontrollen hat Vorteile, aber Achtung! Wörterbücher in Prüfungen können auch Probleme verursachen.

Aufgabe: Notiere mit einem Partner/einer Partnerin die möglichen Vorteile und Nachteile des Wörterbuchs bei Klassenarbeiten.

Vorteile	Nachteile

2. Einige wichtige Tipps:

a) Leseverstehen:

Schlage beim ersten Lesen eines Textes nichts nach. Hier geht es nämlich darum, einen ersten Gesamteindruck zu gewinnen. Du kannst aber Wörter /Textstellen markieren, die du später nachschlagen möchtest.

Schlage möglichst wenig nach. Schlage nur dann nach, wenn die Textstelle für die Bedeutung des gesamten Texts wichtig ist und du die Bedeutung vom Kontext nicht sicher ableiten kannst.

b) Schreibaufgaben:

Nutze zuerst die Vokabeln, die du gelernt hast. Wenn du dich gut vorbereitet hast, kennst du schon viele Wörter zum Thema. Das Nachschlagen im Wörterbuch wird dann kaum notwendig sein.

Nutze die Korrekturzeit auch für die Wörterbucharbeit. Nachdem du deinen Text kontrolliert hast, nutze die Restzeit, um fehlende oder bessere Begriffe und Redewendungen im Wörterbuch nachzuschlagen. Dadurch kannst du deinen Text vor der Abgabe ‚aufpolieren‘.

T4: Writing a characterization

Jahrgang 9:
1. Fremdsprache
Textproduktion

This handout will help you answer assignments which contain the following wording:

	Definition
'give/write a characterization of'	provide a detailed analysis of a character ↓ (analyse : describe and explain in detail.)

1. Direct and indirect characterization

An author (or film maker) can use direct and indirect characterization:

(a) Direct characterization: Information about the character is stated directly in the text.

(b) Indirect characterization: Information about a character can be interpreted from the text.

You might analyze:

- the character's own thoughts, words, and actions
- how other characters interact with this character
- what other characters (or the narrator) says or thinks about the character

2. Preparation

Complete a characterization grid for the character:

Information about the character	Page/ line(s)	Quotes	Analysis: What does the information reveal about the character?
Outward appearance: What does the character look like? What does he/she wear?
Situation in life: Where does the character live? What does he/she do for a living? What interests does he/she have? Etc.
Feelings/attitudes: What are the character's feelings/thoughts/beliefs/opinions?
Behaviour: How does the character act/react in different situations?
Interaction with others: How does the character interact with other characters? How do the other characters treat him/her? What do they say about him/her?

Tip: To write a characterization, you need a good knowledge of adjectives which describe character traits!

3. Writing your characterization

a) Introduction: Include the character's name, the title and author of the text and a general statement about the character's role in the story. Use the present tense!

e.g. Andy, the protagonist in the story 'Bread on the Water' by David Lubar, is a teenage boy who leaves home to start a new life with his best friend, Tommy.

b) Main body: Present the information you have collected in your characterization grid. Structure your answer clearly and start a new paragraph for each new point/aspect. Give quotes and text references to support what you say.

e.g. In church, Andy jokes about the Bible (cf. p.20, l.12). This gives the impression that he is a very clever boy with a good sense of humor. But the fact that he does not stop, even after he and Tommy are thrown out of the church, also reveals that...

Furthermore, when Sheila describes Andy as an "affectionate boy" (p.102, l.5), it becomes clear that...

c) Conclusion: Briefly sum up your key findings.

T5: Writing a formal letter

Jahrgang 9:
1. Fremdsprache
Textproduktion

When you write a formal letter (for example, an application letter), you need to follow certain conventions and use formal English. A typical assignment might be:

Holiday job

In the Cambridge Weekly News, you have found a job advertisement for a summer job at Meadows Home Farm.

Write a letter of application. Address your letter to:

June Hall

Meadows Home Farm Shop

Harston

Cambridge CB22 4BE

1. PREPARATION

a) Read the task carefully and highlight key information. Think about:

- Who are you writing to?
- Why are you writing?
- What information should you include in your letter?

b) Plan and organize the content of your letter and your paragraphing.

1. Layout:

1. Write your address (without your name) and the date in the top right-hand corner.
2. Write the name and address of the person/organization you are writing to on the left.
3. Start with the salutation Dear Sir or Madam. If you know the name of the person you are writing to, then use Dear Mr/Mrs/Ms...
4. Use long forms (e.g. 'I am' not 'I'm').
5. Start by giving the reason for writing.
6. Make reference to future contact at the end of your letter. You can use the expression I look forward to + gerund (-ing)
7. Finish your letter with Yours faithfully, if you begin with Dear Sir or Madam. Finish with Yours sincerely, if you begin with Dear Mr, Mrs, Ms...
8. Sign your letter and type your name at the bottom.

① Schillerstr. 17
37067 Goettingen
Germany

② Jane Hall
Meadows Home Farm Shop
Harston
Cambridge CB22 4BE
Great Britain

4 May 2010

③ Dear Ms Hall

④ I am writing to you about the advertisement from April 21st in the Cambridge Weekly News. I would love to work for you at Meadows Home Farm this summer. ④

I am 16 years old and I have a good level of English but would like to improve my speaking skills. I am hard-working, friendly and a fast learner. At home I look after two horses so farm work is not new to me. I have also worked in a sports shop so I have experience in serving people and working in a team. My hobbies are horse riding, playing volley ball and hiking. Please find my CV with this letter.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to hearing from ⑥ you.

⑦ Yours sincerely

⑧ Tamara Wille
Tamara Wille

2. Formal English

Use standard phrases to make your letter more formal:

Giving the reason for writing: I am writing (to you) in order to + inf. I am writing to you about/concerning... With reference to your (advertisement), I am writing to + inf.	Offering: I would be happy to + inf. I would be interested in + gerund Should you require... (any further information), then please let me know.
Requesting: I would be grateful if you could... Could you possibly....?	Thanking: Thank you (in advance) for...(your time/considering my application).
Reference to enclosures: I have enclosed... Please find enclosed....	Reference to future contact: I look forward to + gerund (e.g. receiving your reply/hearing from you soon/seeing you soon etc...)

Assessment grid – Writing a formal letter

Formal criteria:

	+ / o / -

T6: Mediation mit Zieltext

Jahrgang 9:
1. Fremdsprache
Textproduktion

In a mediation task, you write a text in English giving information you found in a German text. The tasks will always tell you why you are writing, the information you need to include and the sort of text you have to write (e.g. an article, a formal letter or an e-mail to a friend). A typical task might be:

Volunteering in Germany

*Your British exchange partner sends you an email in which s*he asks you what volunteer work in Germany is like. During your internet research, you found this text about a girl volunteering with the Red Cross Youth. Send an email to your exchange partner in which you summarize the relevant information presented in the article.*

1. COMPLETING A MEDIATION TASK: You should always follow the same basic steps when completing a mediation task.

Task 1: Write the information in the box in the correct place in the 'How to-card'.

- Report the information objectively. – Read the German text and underline relevant information. – Paraphrase complex ideas and difficult terms. – Improve your text (content, structure, language, register and style)
- Read and analyse the task carefully. – Explain culture-specific terms

How to-card*:* Completing Mediation Task

READING & PLANNING

STEP 1: _____
In doing so, highlight addressee, focus of interest, the purpose, the required text form (target text).

STEP 2: Make notes in the task analysis grid (see below).

STEP 3: _____

WRITING

STEP 5: Write your English text for the addressee in the required text form.

In doing so, consider these points:

- _____
- Only include the main ideas.
- _____
- Make use of language help (e.g. word lists, English text on the same topic, bilingual dictionary).
- _____

EDITING

STEP 6: _____

2. ANALYSING THE TASK

Task 2: Read the example task and fill in the task analysis grid.

Addressee
Target text
Register/Style
Purpose
Required information

3. WRITING YOUR TARGET TEXT

a) Structuring your text:

- The structure of your text won't be the same as the structure of the German text. Find a structure that is suitable for the target text you have to write.
- Look back at the different 'Fit in den Fremdsprachen am GymMar' handouts for tips on how to write your target text:

	1. Fremdsprache	2. Fremdsprache
Year 7		T1: E-Mails und Briefe I
Year 8		T3: E-Mails und Briefe II
Year 9	T5: Formale Briefe	T7: Blogeintrag
Year 10	T 10: Artikel T11: Rede

b) Choosing the right register:

Task 3: Match the different target texts to the most likely register.

e-mail to a friend - letter to the principal of your school - article for your school magazine -
blog entry - e-mail to your host father/mother

T7: Blogbeitrag schreiben

Jahrgang 9:
2. Fremdsprache (Franz.)
Textproduktion

In einem Blogbeitrag kannst du über Erlebnisse berichten, deine Meinung äußern und andere zu Kommentaren einladen.

Activité :

Tu passes tes vacances à Nice où tu fais un cours de français et tu découvres la région. Chaque jour, tu écris un article de blog en français pour raconter tes expériences à tes amis et à ta famille. Écris un article -pour aujourd'hui. Raconte :

- Qu'est-ce que tu as fait ?
- Comment ça va et pourquoi?

1. Vor dem Schreiben: Ideen sammeln und strukturieren.

- a) Lies dir zunächst die Aufgabenstellung genau durch und überlege, was für einen Text du schreiben sollst. Auch in einem Blogbeitrag darfst du die Begrüßung am Anfang und die Verabschiedung am Ende nicht vergessen.
- b) Sammle Ideen und schreibe französische Wörter und Ausdrücke auf, die du verwenden willst. Ordne sie z. B. in einer Mindmap.
- c) Bringe deine Gedanken danach in eine logische und zeitliche Reihenfolge. Denke daran, jeden gedanklichen Abschnitt mit einem neuen Absatz zu beginnen.

2. Tipps für einen Blogbeitrag

- a) Finde eine interessante Überschrift und einen Anfang, der deine Leserinnen und Leser einlädt, deinen Text weiterzulesen.
- b) Ein Blog schreibst du für eine bestimmte Zielgruppe, z.B. einen Freundeskreis oder Menschen mit ähnlichen Interessen. Meistens ist der Ton informell (,tu' statt ,vous').
- c) Nutze umgangssprachliche Redewendungen. Das klingt natürlich und weckt das Interesse der Leser.
- d) Für Blogbeiträge kannst du die folgenden Ausdrücke verwenden:

Begrüßung	Bonjour/Salut à tous! C'est moi, (nom)...
Einleitung	Je suis actuellement à ... pour... Aujourd'hui, je vais vous raconter
Berichten	Ce matin, ... / Cet après-midi, ... / Demain, (aller + infinitif)...
Meinung	Je suis super content(e)! / J'adore... / J'aime... / Je déteste... / J'ai envie de...
Verabschiedung	À très bientôt! / À plus! (Nom)

3. Antworten auf einen Blogeintrag

Manchmal kannst du auch einen Blogeintrag kommentieren.

Antworten auf einen Blogeintrag	Salut, (nom) ! J'adore ton blog parce que J'ai beaucoup aimé ton article sur
---------------------------------	--

4. Jetzt du! Bearbeite die Aufgabe aus dem Kasten auf Seite 1.

5. Nach dem Schreiben: Fehler korrigieren

Lies dir den ganzen Text durch und korrigiere ihn mit Hilfe der Fehlerliste:

Sind die Nomen angeglichen?	les frères, mes copains
Sind die Adjektive angeglichen?	une nouvelle copine, une jolie maison
Passen Subjekt und Verbform zusammen?	Anne et Julien entrent dans le magasin.
Hast du die Akzente richtig gesetzt?	une école, écouter, un élève
Stimmt die Zeitform des Verbs?	Hier, nous sommes allés chez M. Leblanc. Aujourd'hui , nous sommes à la maison. Demain , nous allons aller à la plage.
Ist die Verneinung richtig?	Mathieu ne comprend rien . Il n' écoute jamais .

T8: Writing a comment

Jahrgang 10:
1. Fremdsprache
Textproduktion

This handout will help you answer assignments which contain the following task words:

	Definition	Typical structure
'discuss'	Give arguments or reasons for and against, especially to come to a well-founded conclusion.	- introduce topic - pro and contra arguments - conclusion: personal opinion
'comment on'	Clearly state your opinion on the topic in question and support your views with evidence	- introduce topic - thesis statement (personal opinion) - arguments which support the thesis* - conclusion

* Note: You can also consider (and reject) arguments which contradict your thesis statement.

1. Preparation:

- Read the task carefully: What exactly do you have to comment on or discuss?
- Brainstorm pro and contra arguments and examples which support them.
- Form 'lines of argumentation': Which arguments can be grouped together?
- Clarify your position: Are you more pro or contra?
- Plan your text structure. For example:

1. Introduction (+ thesis statement) 2. Main body: Paragraph 1: Topic sentence (introduce line of argumentation 1) Supporting arguments (+ counter arguments), explanations, examples etc. Paragraph 2: Topic sentence (introduce line of argumentation 2) Supporting arguments (+ counter arguments), explanations, examples etc. Paragraph 3: ... 3. Conclusion

Tip: Finish your main body with your strongest argument. Make sure this argument supports the opinion you give in your conclusion.

2. Writing your text:

- Introduction: Introduce the general topic and state exactly what you will comment on or discuss.

e.g. The 'Fridays for Future' movement has grown rapidly over the past year and more and more young people are now skipping school on Fridays to show their support for its aims. However, can these protests really help to save the environment?

Note: If you have been asked to comment, then you can make thesis statement at this point, too:

e.g. Based on the amount of change that this movement has achieved in such a short period of time, the answer to this question must surely be yes.

b) Main Body: Follow your plan and use commenting and linking phrases. Follow the three-step rule:

state it – explain it – justify it

e.g. One of the main changes which the 'Fridays for Future' movement has achieved is an increased awareness of environmental problems. Firstly, more and more young people in Germany are joining the movement, which shows that they are increasingly environmentally aware. On top of that, their protests have been well-covered in the media, meaning that the whole of society now sees environmentalism as a priority. This claim is supported by the fact that Germany has now set itself ambitious targets for the reduction of carbon emissions by 55% by 2030. Importantly, this increased awareness is not just limited to Germany, but can be seen throughout the world..

Conclusion: Sum up your main points and state your conclusion. Try to make your ending powerful and memorable.

Articles can have lots of different functions and styles. This handout focuses on how to write a 'feature' article, in which you give information and your personal opinion on a topic. A typical assignment might be:

The dangers of plastic

You taking part in the Erasmus + project at your school. The theme of this year's project is 'Our Blue Planet'. You have been asked to write an article in English about the environmental consequences of plastic and what can be done to fight the problems which plastic causes.

1. PREPARATION

Step 1: Read the task carefully and highlight the key words.

Task: Complete the table for the typical assignment above.

Theme: What is the topic of the article?
Content: What information should the article include?
Position: What should your opinion on the topic be?
Target audience: Who are you writing the article for?

Step 2: Brainstorm the ideas you will include in your article.

T 11: Writing a speech

Jahrgang 10:
1. Fremdsprache
Textproduktion

A successful speech should create an emotional connection with the audience in order to convince them of your views on a particular topic. A typical written assignment might be:

Making a difference

How much of a difference can young people really make? You are invited to speak in front of a young audience at an international congress on the future of our society. Write a speech in which you address problems our society faces and convince your audience that young people can make a difference.

1. PREPARATION

Step 1: Analyze the task carefully and highlight the key words.

Task: Complete the table for the typical assignment above.

Theme: What is the topic of the speech?
Content: What information should the speech include?
Position: What opinion should you have?
Target audience: Who are you giving the speech to?

Step 2: Brainstorm the arguments you will include in your speech.

Step 3: Sort your arguments into a logical order. Where possible, find examples which support the points you make. Tip: Always finish your speech with your strongest argument!

2. WRITING YOUR SPEECH

a) Your speech should contain the following elements:

Opening	Main body	Close
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Grab the audience's attention (e.g. with a quotation or a rhetorical question) - Address the audience directly - Clearly state the topic and your personal position on it 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Present and explain the arguments - Focus only on a few key issues - Give examples and facts to support your opinions - Show your emotional involvement and appeal to the emotions of the audience 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Briefly highlight your main points - End with an emotional statement or appeal - Show that the speech has ended (e.g. by thanking the audience for listening)

b) You can make your speech more powerful and emotional by using the following techniques.

Technique	Example
Use the 1 st person plural ('we', 'us', 'our' etc.)	'Together, we can make a real difference.'
Repetition (e.g. anaphora)	'Let's build an environment where we encourage, where we motivate, where we help and where we are kind to each other.'
Rhetorical questions	'Why does this matter?'
Amplification	'It has become clear, absolutely clear, that...'
Listing (enumeration)	'...disobedience, bullying, fighting, truancy and insults are becoming more and more of a problem at our school.'
Use of adjectives	'This is having a disastrous, wide-spread and irreversible impact.'
Use emotive language/statements	'Fight for your lives before it's someone else's job'.
Direct appeals	'We can no longer tolerate this - now is the time to act!'

Task: Analyse a famous speech in class. Can you identify any of the techniques listed above? What other techniques are used to make the speech more powerful and emotional?

Fit in den Fremdsprachen am GymMar: Writing emails and informal letters

1. Fremdsprache Textproduktion

Informal and semi-formal letters are usually written to someone you know and therefore you can use a relaxed, conversational style and contracted forms (e.g. 'I'm' instead of 'I am'). You should try to make your letter interesting by not just describing events, but also talking about your feelings and emotions. The information below will help you to write your letter correctly.

• Layout

- Address and date: Write your address (without your name) and the date in the top right-hand corner.
- Greeting or salutation: Start your letter with 'Dear' and the first name of the person you are writing to.
- First paragraph (opening): You normally start by greeting the person you are writing to. Some useful phrases for doing this are given below.
- Paragraphs: Make sure you divide the rest of your letter into clear paragraphs. Each paragraph should be about a particular theme and should start with a topic sentence. You can also use linking words and expressions to make the structure of your letter clear.
- Final paragraph: You should finish your letter with an appropriate closing sentence. Some useful phrases for doing this are also given below.
- Closing statement: Use a suitable informal closing statement to close your letter and then write your name.

• Useful phrases

Ideas for the opening paragraph:

How are you? / How have the family been?
I hope you are well.
Thank you / Many thanks for your (recent/last) letter / postcard.
It was good / nice / great to hear from you again.
I was so surprised to hear that...
I'm sorry I haven't written / haven't been in touch for such a long time.

Suitable closing statements:

Love, Lots of love, All the best, Take care, Best wishes,

Ideas for the final paragraph:

- Give a reason why you're ending the letter:
Anyway, I must go and get on with my work! / I guess it's time I got on with that studying I've been avoiding.
- Send greetings and/or make reference for future contact
Give my love / regards to... / Say hello to...
We must try and meet up soon. / I can't wait to hear from you. / Look forward to seeing you again. / Hope to hear from you soon. / See you soon. / Write soon.
